

Sudbury Saturday Night – Stompin' Tom Connors

CHORUS:

The [C] girls are out to bingo and the [F] boys are gettin' stinko
And we [C] think no more of Inco on a Sudbury saturday [G7] night [G7]
The [C] glasses they will tinkle when our [F] eyes begin to twinkle
And we'll [C] think no more of Inco on a [G7] Sudbury saturday [C] night [C]

With [C] Irish Jim O'Connell there and [F] Scotty Jack MacDonald
There's [C] honky Frederick Hurchell gettin' [G7] tight, but that's alright
There's [C] happy German Fritzzy there with [F] Frenchy getting tipsy
And [C] even Joe the Gypsy knows she's [G7] Saturday to-[C]night [C]

Now when [C] Mary Ann and Mable come to [F] join us at the table,
And [C] tell us how the bingo went to-[G7]night, we'll look a fright
But [C] if they won the money, we'll be [F] lappin' up the honey, boys,
'Cause [C] everything is funny, for she's [G7] Saturday to-[C]night [C]

Repeat CHORUS

Instrumental CHORUS

We'll [C] drink the loot we borrowed and re-[F]cuperate tomorrow
'Cause [C] everything is wonderful to-[G7]night, we had a good fight
We [C] ate the deli pickle and we for-[F]got about the nickel
And [C] everybody's tickled, for she's [G7] Saturday to-[C]night [C]

The [C] songs that we'll be singing, they might be [F] wrong but they'll be ringing
When [C] all the lights of town are shining [G7] bright, and we're all tight
We'll [C] get to work on Monday, but to-[F]morrow's only Sunday
And we're [C] out to have a fun day for she's [G7] Saturday to-[C]night. Yeah...

Repeat CHORUS and end with:

We'll [F] think no more of [C] Inco on a [G7] Sudbury saturday [C] night.
